DIG SUNDAY SCHOOL TOUR PARTY WILL REACH HONOLULU IN MARCH

Honolulu will soon be visited by a party of Sunday school workers, representing the World's Sunday School Association, that are on their way from the mainland to Zurich, Switzerland, to attend the great convention there next July. This body of workers numbers over twenty and includes a party of which Mr. H. J. Heinz of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the head and best-known member.

The Sunday schools of Hawaii are to be benefited by this tour, for on Friday, March 7th, the Tenny Maru will land this party in Honolulu and they will spend the day in our midst. Plans are now being perfected for their entertainment. They will be met by a committee of local Sunday school workers, headed by Rev. H. P. Judd and Rev. A. A. Ebersole, and the morning will be spent in sightseeing, visiting as much of the city as is possible in the short space of time allowed.

A lunch will be provided for the party at noon in the Central Union Church parish house and will be served by the ladies of the church. It is expected that in addition to the visitors, the missionary superintendents of the various boards, the pastors and superintendents of the church Sunday schools will be present at the lunch.

Informal talks and conferences will follow for awhile, and then adjournment will be taken to the Kawaiahae Church, where a rally will be held from 2:30 to 4 p. m. At this gathering, to which all the Sunday schools of Honolulu and the general public is cordially invited, it will be our privilege to hear from some of the visitors and a treat is in store. It is expected that the steamer will sail at 5 p. m. for the Orient. Messrs. Heinz, Brown, Hamill, et al. are members of a commission that is studying the Sunday schools of Hawaii, Japan, China and the Philippines. In gathering the statistics from these islands they have been assisted by Rev. H. P. Judd of Kahului, who will have his report ready to present to Mr. Heinz that day.

Leading up to the rally on March 7th there will be a series of Sunday school institutes. The first will be held in the Kawaiahae Church Sunday school room on Tuesday, March 4th, from 2 to 4:30 p. m. and will be led by Rev. H. P. Judd. The evening session from 7:30 to 8:30 in the same place will be in charge of Rev. J. P. Erdman.

On Thursday, March 6th, in the Kaunakapili Church there will be institutes from 3 to 4:30 p. m. and from 7:30 to 9 p. m., the names of the speakers to be announced later. These institutes are open to everybody, although intended primarily for Sunday school teachers and officers. Their object is to increase the efficiency of the teachers by suggesting new methods and improved ways of conducting the Sunday schools of Hawaii.

The personnel of the Oriental tour party is as follows:

Mr. H. J. Heinz, manufacturer, Pittsburgh, Pa.; president of J. Heinz & Co., food products; president, Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association; member executive committee World's and International Sunday School Association; chairman commission for study of Sunday school conditions of the Orient.

Mr. James W. Kinnear, Pittsburg, Pa.; of firm Kinnear, McCloskey & Best, attorneys; member of executive committee Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association; formerly Sunday school superintendent; leader large adult Bible class.

Mr. Edgar H. Hall (and wife), West Acton, Mass.; of Hall Bros. Co., manufacturers; chairman board of selectmen, West Acton; chairman adult class committee, Massachusetts State Sunday School Association; teacher large organized adult Bible class.

Mr. C. B. Keenleyside (and wife), Regina, Saskatchewan; secretary Social and Moral Reform Council of Saskatchewan; prominent businessman; splendid church worker, and author; formerly Sunday school superintendent.

Mr. A. C. Stone, Boston, Mass.; successful businessman; chairman finance committee Massachusetts State Sunday School Association; interested in adult Bible class and Y. M. C. A. work.

Mr. Fred B. Stafford, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y.; merchant; secretary Westchester County Sunday School Association; assistant superintendent Sunday school.

Mr. T. R. Harrison, Kingston, Ont.; merchant; superintendent Sunday school.

Mr. Harry Morton (wife and son), Oakland, Cal.; of H. Morton Co., gold and silversmiths; superintendent Sunday school; chairman central committee California State Sunday School Association.

Mr. Frank L. Brown, Brooklyn, N. Y.; chairman executive committee New York State Sunday School Association; member executive committee International and World's Sunday School Association.

Rev. H. H. Hamill, D. D., Nashville, Tenn.; chairman educational committee International Sunday School Association; superintendent training work, Methodist Church South.

Mrs. H. M. Hamill, Nashville, Tenn.; specialist in elementary grade work; member elementary division committee International Sunday School Association.

Miss Margaret E. Brown, Lincoln, Neb.; secretary Nebraska State Sunday School Association; specialist in elementary grade work.

Miss Eloise Snell, Des Moines, Iowa; superintendent secondary division Iowa State Sunday School Association; specialist in work for many years.

Rev. C. E. Wilbur, D. D., Pittsburg, Pa.; editor Sunday school periodicals, Methodist Protestant Church.

Miss Mary F. Moore, Catlettsburg, Ky.

MAUI MINISTERS BRAVE COLD OF HALEAKALA ON HARD TRIP

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

WAILUKU, Maui, Feb. 20.—Rev. A. Craig Bowditch, pastor of the Makawao Union church, accompanied Rev. R. B. Dodge, agent for the Hawaiian board, on his recent trip around Maui. Monday night was spent at the top of Haleakala and one of the hardest thunder storms in years. The two ministers reached the top about 5 o'clock and had enough wood with them to keep up a roaring fire all night. That was fortunate, for the snow and hail that fell during the early part of the night made Haleakala a very cold, sleepless place. The lightning was unusually sharp and the crashes of the thunder as heavy as have been heard on Maui in many months. It was feared that when morning came that it would be necessary to return directly to Makawao. After waiting until about half-past eight the fog that followed the storm rose enough so that the crater could be seen. Traveling along the edge but very little fog was encountered. Where it did come down thick the trail was perfectly apparent. Snow and ice were piled high against the lava boulders and the path into Haleakala was filled with snow, in some places no less than six or eight inches deep. The cold was intense. With the thickest winter clothing on, still the travelers shivered in that fog when the wind was driving straight into their faces. For one-third of the way into the crater the snow was yet to be found. Not until the floor of the great pit was reached was it warm enough to take off the heavy rain coat and sweater.

In the descent to Kaupo through the gap the rain came down in a pretty hard storm for two hours. Before reaching the first houses in Kaupo the sun came out bright and clear, and no more rain fell on the three remaining days of the trip about East Maui. Services were held in the churches at Kaupo, Kipahulu, Hana, Nāhiku and Keaau. Rev. Louis Mitchell, the pastor of the Kaupo church, traveled as far as Nāhiku, speaking in all the meetings. The church at Kipahulu is being thoroughly repaired, so it will be one of the neatest buildings on that side of Maui.

CATHOLICS WILL HAVE SPECIAL LENT SERVICE

As a preparation for the approaching feast of Easter, special Lent services will be held at the Catholic cathedral from Sunday, March the 2nd, till Sunday, March the 9th, daily, at 7 o'clock p. m.

sermons on the fundamental truths will be delivered by the resident priests as well as by some of the Fathers from the surrounding districts. The sermons will be preceded by the recital of the Rosary and followed by benediction with the most blessed sacrament.

On Friday afternoon the Stations of the Cross will be at 2 o'clock and at 4 o'clock, but the usual Portuguese service at 7 o'clock will be superseded (for that week only) by the above-mentioned exercises. Saturday evening being taken up by the hearing of confessions, there will be no service.

Rev. Akaike Akana will speak in Hawaiian at the Kaunakapili Church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited.

Oriental Cream

OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER
An Indispensable and Necessary
Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and pearly white and is highly desirable when preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a liquid and non-creasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance or the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness.
